On 9 January 2013, WWF issued a media release in relation to Yabulu Nickel Refinery. On 10 January 2013, Mr Nick Heath took part in a segment broadcast on Nicole Dyer's Statewide mornings program on ABC radio, Queensland.

In doing so, WWF and Mr Heath raised concerns about dams at the refinery. Since doing so, WWF has received certain information on behalf of Clive Palmer, the owner of the Refinery, that those concerns were unfounded.

On the basis of that information, WWF and Mr Heath withdraw the suggestion that the dams as at January this year, were in danger of collapse. Also on the basis of that information, WWF and Mr Heath accept that works have been undertaken at the Refinery to address the safety of the dams.

WWF and Mr Heath accordingly apologise to Mr Palmer for any hurt caused by the publications in question.

Yours Sincerely

Dermot O'Gorman
CEO WWF-Australia
